EMBMT

Eastern Mediterranean Blood and Marrow Transplantation Group

“formed to promote excellence in the field of HSCT as a professional group for the Blood and Marrow transplant professionals”

The Eastern Mediterranean Blood and Marrow Transplantation Group, Incorporated, provides a membership directory, compiled from the membership database, for the sole use of the EMBMT members. The directory is available to EMBMT members. The purpose of the directory is for EMBMT members to have the ability to correspond with other transplant professionals, and as a reference for information relative to the field of blood and marrow transplantation.

Any other uses and/or duplication of this directory are prohibited without the expressed, written permission of the EMBMT Board of Directors.

Every effort has been extended to accurately represent each member in the professional manner warranted by an organization such as EMBMT. Should an error have been made in a member listing, please accept our sincerest apologies. To correct your listing in the next revision of the directory, and to assure correct information immediately available to our database, contact the EMBMT secretariat office at your earliest convenience or see www.embmt.org and “membership” to advise changes online.
